Skills or education:

Bachelor of Business Administration from Easetern New Mexico University, some graduate level courses in business management through Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University, marketing skills including marketing piece development, customer service skills, data management skills, computer skills. Metro North Leadership Program. Event planning.

Civic activities:

Currently participating in the Citizens Police Academy in Northglenn. Work with the Metro North Chamber as a member of their Leadership Advisory Board. A member of the Hillcrest Elementary School Improvement Team. Various community oriented events through work.

Meetings attended:

Yes, have attended Northglenn City Council meetings. Have attended Council meetings in Westminster.

Plans/Ordinances:

Yes I am familiar with the ordinances of the City of Northglenn. I am not an expert on the ordinances but am familiar with them and feel I could find ordinances related to specific questions from Northglenn residents as needed.

Traits:

I have been a supervisor in previous employment positions and have had to deal with some conflict resolution. I am a good listener and am willing to listen to several sides of issues. I enjoy solving problems.

Interest:

I am interested in serving on the Citizens Affairs Board because I want to improve Northglenn. I want to become more involved in the City and feel this would be a good Board to start my service to the City. I think that this is an important Board that hasn't been used as the tool that the Northglenn Charter affords it. Besides, there are 3 vacancies on the Board and one of those is in my Ward.

Relatives:

No
