

PROCLAMATION

- WHEREAS, the City of Northglenn first hosted a residency of the Missoula Children's Theatre in 1988, which included the production of "Jack and the Beanstalk"; and
- WHEREAS, the Missoula Children's Theatre is a traveling arts education organization dedicated to the development of life skills in children through participation in the performing arts; and
- WHEREAS, the Missoula Children's Theatre reaches thousands of children around the world each year with their inclusive theatre program and has been an integral part of the cultural arts in the City of Northglenn for the past 25 years; and
- WHEREAS, nearly 2,600 local children have participated in a Missoula Children's Theatre residency since 1988, and past participants are now bringing their own children to the theatre to audition; and
- WHEREAS, in addition to conducting auditions, rehearsals, and performances, the Missoula Children's Theatre also provides free drama based workshops for local schools or daycare programs in the community, and has helped both children and adults develop a greater appreciation for the theatre experience; and
- WHEREAS, Northglenn is proud to host the Missoula Children's Theatre and is thrilled to celebrate the 49th residency this summer with the production of "The Tortoise vs. the Hare" at the D.L. Parsons Theatre.

NOW THEREFORE, I, Joyce Downing, Mayor of the City of Northglenn, Colorado, do hereby proclaim June 24th through 30th, 2013 as in the City of Northglenn and congratulate the Missoula Children's Theatre on its 25th Anniversary of bringing performing arts programs to the City of Northglenn. The City looks forward to another 25 years of youth theatre productions and wishes the Missoula Children's Theatre continued creativity, inspiration, and success.

MISSOULA CHILDREN'S THEATRE WEEK

DATED, at Northglenn, Colorado, this 24th day of June 2013.

---

JOYCE DOWNING
Mayor

