

PROCLAMATION

- WHEREAS, municipal government is the government closest to most citizens and the one with the most direct daily impact upon its residents; and
- WHEREAS, the citizens of Northglenn rely upon local government to deliver services such as clean water, trash and recycling, public safety, transportation, and recreational opportunities; and
- WHEREAS, municipal government is administered for and by its citizens and it is important to create and encourage a connection with residents to share information about the inner workings of City Hall and the valuable services provided to residents; and
- WHEREAS, City Council recognizes that Colorado Cities & Towns Week promotes civic education and engagement and acknowledges the important role municipal government plays in all of our lives; and
- WHEREAS, the City of Northglenn and other member cities and towns of the Colorado Municipal League have joined together to teach students and other citizens about municipal government through a variety of projects and events during Colorado Cities and Towns Week; and
- WHEREAS, Colorado Cities & Towns Week offers an important opportunity to convey to all citizens of Colorado that they can shape and influence government through their civic involvement.

NOW THEREFORE, I, Joyce Downing, Mayor of the City of Northglenn, Colorado, do hereby proclaim the week of October 20th through 26th, 2014 as in the City of Northglenn and encourage all residents of every community to actively participate in the events and activities planned in celebration of Colorado Cities & Towns Week in an effort to become more familiar with local government and the services it provides.

COLORADO CITIES & TOWNS WEEK

DATED, at Northglenn, Colorado, this 13th day of October 2014.

JOYCE DOWNING
Mayor

