

PROCLAMATION

- WHEREAS, no other nation in the world has such a diverse population and it is this diversity and the contributions of the men, women and children that will sustain the nation's character and strength into the future; and
- WHEREAS, there are six nationally designated history and heritage months that recognize the important contributions of the many diverse segments of the population, but no single established period that reaches out to everyone and recognizes all the diversity in the nation's workplaces, schools and communities; and
- WHEREAS, Northglenn is a city of caring people who have created a healthy, safe and secure place for people of all geographic, ethnic, economic, and religious backgrounds to live, work, and play; and
- WHEREAS, diversity activities and initiatives add value and strength to the social fabric of our community, and acceptance of diversity will help peace prevail; and
- WHEREAS, cultural diversity events will be held in the months of July and August at the Peace Garden in E.B. Rains, Jr. Memorial Park to celebrate diversity and encourage learning about a few of the many cultures living as citizens in the United States.

NOW THEREFORE, I, Rick Lindsey, Mayor Pro Tem of the City of Northglenn, Colorado, hereby proclaim the week of July 9th through 15th as in the City of Northglenn, and urge all citizens to set aside time to honor and participate in activities that build bridges of understanding and acceptance of the many diverse cultures.

CULTURAL DIVERSITY WEEK

Dated, at Northglenn, Colorado, this 22nd day of June 2006.

RICK LINDSEY
MAYOR PRO TEM

