

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, municipal government is the government closest to most citizens and the one with the most direct daily impact upon its residents; and

WHEREAS, the citizens of Northglenn rely upon local government to deliver services such as clean water, trash and recycling, public safety, transportation, and recreational opportunities; and

WHEREAS, municipal government is administered for and by its citizens and is dependent upon public commitment to and understanding of its many responsibilities; and

WHEREAS, municipal government officials and employees share the responsibility to pass along their understanding of public services and their benefits, and Colorado Cities and Towns Week is a time to recognize the important role played by municipal government in all of our lives; and

WHEREAS, the City of Northglenn and other member cities and towns of the Colorado Municipal League have joined together to teach students and citizens about municipal government through a variety of projects and information; and

WHEREAS, Colorado Cities & Towns Week offers an important opportunity to convey to all citizens of Colorado that they can shape and influence government through their civic involvement.

NOW THEREFORE, I, Joyce Downing, Mayor of the City of Northglenn, Colorado, do hereby proclaim the week of September 12th through 18th, 2016 as in the City of Northglenn and encourage all residents of every community to actively participate in the events and activities planned in celebration of Colorado Cities & Towns Week in an effort to become more familiar with local government and the services it provides.

COLORADO CITIES & TOWNS WEEK

DATED, at Northglenn, Colorado, this 12th day of September 2016.

JOYCE DOWNING
Mayor

