WHEREAS, in 2016, National Hunger and Homelessness Awareness Week is focused on specific steps that residents, as well as charities and the government, can take to prevent Coloradoans from experiencing hunger and homelessness; and

WHEREAS, the City of Northglenn recognizes that if we work together, hunger and homelessness are solvable; and

WHEREAS, in partnership with the City of Northglenn, many organizations, such as Close to Home and Hunger Free Colorado, are committed to building well-being by connecting residents to available services, implementing public policy initiatives, and encouraging all Coloradoans to speak up and lend a hand so the City of Northglenn can be a community where everyone has a safe place to call home and enough food to eat.
