To present the March 2021 winners of the Good Neighbor Award, which is given by City Council to individuals, families, or groups that better the Northglenn community.

BACKGROUND

In 2019, the City created the Resident Recognition Program to honor residents who made a difference in the community. The program was implemented during the 50th anniversary of Northglenn, and the goal of honoring 50 residents was exceeded.

The success of the Resident Recognition Program spurred the Good Neighbor Award program. Nominees are recognized three times a year, and anyone can make a nomination at www.northglenn.org/goodneighbor. Past recipients through the Resident Recognition Program or the Good Neighbor Award program are not eligible. A complete list is available on the web page.

In 2020, Council honored 18 recipients. This meeting, the City honors:

- Charlie and Verissa Beatty
- Adam and Amy Boyer
- Chip Case
- Marvin Endes
- Paul Heaton
- Jim Howard

GOOD NEIGHBOR AWARD HONOREES

Charles and Verissa Beatty

Nominated by Frank and Linda Bateman

“

They have gotten to know the residents, check on them and shovel walks and driveways when it snows. They also keep an eye out for unknown people in the area. They have had gatherings in the summer months for older neighbors to get to know each other. They never expect anything in return. Great inspiring couple.

Adam and Amy Boyer

Nominated by Gabrielle Felzien

“

Adam and Amy are fantastic neighbors. I have personally experienced their willingness to help and make everyone a part of our small community. They go above and beyond, shoveling snow, helping with sewer backups (no small feat) and just plain being friendly.

Chip Case

Nominated by Darold and Cindy Bryan

“

He is a Snow Stormer volunteer who is extremely reliable and does a great job. He is very appreciated.

Marvin Endes

Nominated by Wendy DeLaCruz

MARCH
2021

“

He is the embodiment of a true neighbor. He is selfless, kind and never seeks recognition for his generosity. He takes immense pride in helping his neighbors and keeping Garland Drive and the larger Northglenn community beautiful.

Paul Heaton

Nominated by Crystal Lehman

“

Every winter for 21 years he has gone out of his way to snowplow the corner of 105th, before the plows are able to get out. He drives up and down Ura lane, and around the neighborhood, to help seniors that can't get out to do their driveways. He has a Christmas Eve party for the neighbors, but not this year due to COVID. He is a great man, always lends anyone a helping hand. Paul also volunteers at a food bank.

2021

Jim Howard

Nominated by Linda Anderson

“

Jim has consistently used his snowblower to clear our driveway and sidewalk. He constantly says he doesn't want anything for doing this and will keep doing it as long as he and his snowblower are able. We have been neighbors for over 40 years and since my husband is no longer able to shovel, he has taken care of our snow shoveling.
