

CITY MANAGER'S OFFICE MEMORANDUM
#12-2022

DATE: Feb. 14, 2022

TO: Honorable Mayor Meredith Leighty and City Council Members

THROUGH: Heather Geyer, City Manager

FROM: Amanda Peterson, Director of Parks, Recreation & Culture
Rupa Venkatesh, Assistant to the City Manager

SUBJECT: CR-55 – Odell Barry Park Naming Proposal

PURPOSE

To consider CR-55, a resolution to name the site currently referenced as “Justice Center West Park” after former Mayor Odell Barry.

BACKGROUND

A proposal to name the future park site at 421 W. 112th Ave. after former Mayor Odell Barry was submitted by the Diversity, Inclusivity and Social Equity Board (DISEB) in May 2021. The proposal was presented during a regular meeting of the Parks and Recreation Advisory Board (PRAB) on June 10, 2021. Per the City’s policy for naming and renaming parks and recreation facilities, the PRAB heard the proposal and elicited community feedback during the 90-day waiting period. At the conclusion of that waiting period, the PRAB found former Mayor Barry’s contributions to the community to be both “extensive and substantial.” A partial list of his contributions that were provided as support for the naming request included:

- Became recreation superintendent in 1966 for the Northglenn Metropolitan Recreation District after retiring from the Denver Broncos
- Advocated for the first Northglenn Recreation Center
- Ran a youth football camp for the Northglenn Recreation Center where he coached over 7,000 kids
- Former Chairman of the Colorado Black Chamber of Commerce
- Member of the Colorado Municipal League (CML) Executive Board; successfully advocated to bring the CML conference to Northglenn
- Served on the Northglenn Centennial-Bicentennial project committee
- Served as a member of City Council from 1972 to 1980
- Served as Mayor from 1980 to 1982
- Founding member of the Rotary Club of Northglenn-Thornton

Taking into consideration the original proposal, the public comments that were submitted and Barry’s contributions to the City, the PRAB made a unanimous recommendation to name the park “Odell Barry Park” at their regular meeting on Sept. 9, 2021.

During the City Council study session on Feb. 7, 2022, staff and DISEB members provided an overview of the park naming policy, plans for future development of the park site, and Odell Barry’s accomplishments. During that meeting, City Council provided consensus to move forward with the recommendation to name the site “Odell Barry Park.”

BUDGET/TIME IMPLICATIONS

There are no financial or time impacts to the City associated with the naming of the park.

STAFF RECOMMENDATION

Staff recommends approval of CR-55, formally naming the property at 421 W. 112th Ave. “Odell Barry Park.”

City of Northglenn Diversity, Social Inclusivity, and Equity (DISE) Board
11701 Community Center Drive Northglenn, CO 80233
(303) 451-8326

Dear City of Northglenn Parks and Recreation Advisory Board,

The City of Northglenn City Council 2019-2023 Strategic Plan outlines the city's vision to have Northglenn be a diverse and welcoming community that celebrates its small town character, urban energy, and thriving businesses. One of the primary values of the city of Northglenn is inclusivity and of the strategic goals is maintaining and celebrating our diverse community.

The city of Northglenn yielded a Diversity, Social Inclusivity, and Equity \(DISE\) Board to use community feedback to influence future decision making that promotes diversity, inclusivity, and social equity in Northglenn.

The City of Northglenn DISE Board would like to propose a recommendation to name the Northglenn Justice Center Park West after former Northglenn Mayor, Odell Barry. Odell was a Denver Bronco wide-receiver player from 1964 to 1965 and coached more than 7,000 kids, served on Northglenn City Council Ward II from 1970 to 1980, elected the first black mayor of Northglenn from 1980 to 1982, and served as the first black elected vice chair of the Colorado Delegation to the National Democratic Convention in 1980.

Furthermore, Barry was the first black man to be a charter member of the Rotary International, and first black president of the Colorado Civil Defense Association. He was a community member, politician, businessman, and passionate about social justice and equal rights. Barry's contributions to Northglenn and the state of Colorado earned him recognition into the Colorado Black Hall of Fame.

On April 4th of 2008, the City of Northglenn made a proclamation and recognized this day as Odell Barry Day. As noted in the proclamation, Odell scored modern, state-of-the-art recreational facilities for the city, and was a cheerleader for the city of Northglenn for decades. On March 25th 2019, Barry was honored as a recipient of the city's Resident Recognition 50th Anniversary Program. He made an impact in the city of Northglenn and advanced the city's strategic goal of diversity.

We believe accepting our recommendation will make a profound statement to the community that we continue to honor his work and want his legacy and name to be visibly seen and known for generations to come. We hope that you will consider this recommendation at your upcoming meeting for review. If you have any questions, please feel free to reach out to us.

Best regards,

Northglenn DISE Board
