

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Americans are served every single day by public servants at the federal, state, county, and city levels doing work that benefits the public; and

WHEREAS, public servants work to bring people closer to their government, help uphold our democracy and open processes, and increase the quality of life for residents; and

WHEREAS, many public servants, including military personnel, police officers, firefighters, health care professionals, and others risk their lives each day in service to the people of the United States; and

WHEREAS, public servants include inspectors, social workers, accountants, clerks, educators, public transportation workers, technology professionals, administrators, planners, parks workers, laborers, analysts, sanitation workers, and countless other occupations; and

WHEREAS, while some public servants are very visible in the community, others work behind the scenes to ensure that services are available to residents and processes are accessible to the public; and

WHEREAS, without these public servants at every level, continuity would be impossible in a democracy that regularly changes its leaders and elected officials.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Meredith Leighty, Mayor of the City of Northglenn, Colorado, do hereby proclaim May 7th through 13th, 2023 as:

NATIONAL PUBLIC SERVICE RECOGNITION WEEK

in the City of Northglenn and encourage all residents to recognize the accomplishments and contributions of dedicated government employees at all levels.

DATED, at Northglenn, Colorado, this 8th day of May 2023.

MEREDITH LEIGHTY
Mayor
