Why Do You Want to Be a Member of the Board of	Being a member of the Board of Directors of the Northglenn Youth Commission strongly aligns with my long standing passion towards development of my professional trajectory to youth empowerment.

Directors of the Northglenn Youth Commission?:

Recognizing the future and significance of our community, it is paramount that our youth is provided with vigorous platforms that nurture and maximize the potential of our youth through their aspirations, talents, and voices that collectively define the path of the future. My desire to be part of this board is powered by my commitment to contribute substantially to this mission of working towards providing a pivotal platform that influences and guides dynamic individuals. My experience in clubs and multifaceted backgrounds has endowed me with a blend of strategic foresight, leadership skills, and a deep understanding of youth-centric inventiveness. Overall I wish to create an inclusive environment that tailors to the youth where they can be heard and valued in a way they can be active contributors to bettering our community.

How Does City Government Affect Your Life?:

The city government affects my life in several ways. The government dictates the infrastructural framework and the services we have around us from roads to the parks and recreational areas I use on a daily basis. It has directly impacted my ability to engage with the people of my community and the quality of my life. Furthermore, policies and regulations have provided me and the people of our community with a safe environment that fosters growth and interconnectedness of our city, something that has given me the opportunity to thrive through my education, personal growth, and actively helping others around me.

What Other Organizations, Clubs or Teams You Are Currently A Member Of?:

Some Organizations and clubs I'm currently a member of is UNICEF, Red Cross, FBLA, Speech and Debate, Dear Asian Youth, Muslim Student Association and Professional Development.

What Do You Want to Accomplish for Youth in the City of Northglenn?:

In the City of Northglenn, I aspire to create an inclusive, safe, empowering, and future-forward environment for our youth. My Main objective is to establish a platform and space that not only addresses the necessities but also focuses on long-term growth and development. I wish to amplify the various voices of the young community establishing consistent communication between them and city officials to ensure that concerns, goals, and suggestions are heard and implemented into our planning and decision-making processes. Moreover I aim to introduce and amplify educational and training initiatives that can help equip our youth with 21st century skills to prepare for the future challenges that are to come through fostering recreational, cultural programs, providing outlets for creative expression and tailored to the physical and mental well-being of our youth. Lastly, most importantly I wish to acknowledge the many diverse backgrounds and experiences of our youth. I aim to champion inclusivity initiatives given my multi-layered background. Celebrating diversity ensures young individuals are valued with equal access to opportunities is something that is very important to me.

What Impact Do You Think
That Youth of Your Age Can
Have in Our City?:

The impact I believe the youth of my age can have in our city is at this age we stand at the unique intersection of fresh perspectives and newfound strength, that is a very valuable asset to the city. As we are the future of the city and community growing up in a fast growing digital world, we are gifted with the capability to link technological advancements that can support the pressing needs of our community harnessing tools that help communication, spread information, and drive change. At my age by demographic it's greatly influenced by policies of our city as well as on the bigger spectrum of underrepresented decision-making. As being young individuals myself we can provide genuine feedback that speaks on the behalf of the youth as a whole to build towards recreational programs, community events, and reforms from a firsthand perspective. In other words the youth of our age has a profound impact on our multifaceted city through being active contributors that shape narratives built upon fresh perspectives building the frameworks to an inclusive open-minded future our age is nothing but a vantage point to bettering our community.
