

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, National Volunteer Week is a time to “Celebrate Service” by shining a light on the invaluable contributions volunteers make every day, and on the profound impact their efforts have on the well-being of our community; and

WHEREAS, Northglenn’s volunteers are one of our community’s greatest assets, providing thousands of hours of service each year by serving on boards and commissions, volunteering with City departments, and contributing to City programs and projects such as the Bike Donation Program, Parks and Trails Program, Snowstormers, Flowerbed Partners, Farmers Highline Canal Cleanup, and the Neighborhood Beautification Program; and

WHEREAS, these individuals selflessly dedicate their time, talents, and energy to create positive change, foster unity, and build bridges across diverse backgrounds and experiences to exemplify the boundless potential of collective action to create a brighter and more inclusive future for all; and

WHEREAS, these acts of kindness, compassion, and generosity embody the spirit of service, enriching the lives of individuals and strengthening the fabric of our community; and

WHEREAS, through their continued dedication, our volunteers also inspire others to join in the noble pursuit of service, creating a ripple effect of goodwill and empowerment throughout our entire city.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Shannon Lukeman-Hiromasa, Mayor Pro Tem of the City of Northglenn, Colorado, do hereby proclaim the week of April 21st through 27th, 2024 as:

NATIONAL VOLUNTEER RECOGNITION WEEK

in the City of Northglenn. Please join us in honoring and celebrating the selfless service of volunteers, recognizing their invaluable contributions, and expressing our heartfelt gratitude for the positive difference they make in our lives and community.

DATED, at Northglenn, Colorado, this 8th day of April 2024.
