

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, National Public Service Recognition Week is an opportunity to express gratitude and appreciation for the hard work and commitment of our public servants across all levels of government; and

WHEREAS, public servants work tirelessly, with dedication, integrity, and compassion, to uphold the public good, inspire trust and confidence, and enhance the quality of life for all residents; and

WHEREAS, public servants represent a diverse array of occupations, including but not limited to inspectors, social workers, accountants, clerks, educators, public transportation workers, technology professionals, administrators, planners, parks workers, laborers, analysts, sanitation workers, and countless others; and

WHEREAS, many public servants, including military personnel, police officers, firefighters, health care professionals, and others risk their lives each day in service to the people of the United States; and

WHEREAS, while some public servants are very visible in the community, others work behind the scenes to ensure that services are available to residents and processes are open and accessible to the public; and

WHEREAS, without these public servants, continuity would be impossible in a democracy that regularly changes its leaders and elected officials.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Meredith Leighty, Mayor of the City of Northglenn, Colorado, do hereby proclaim May 5th through 11th, 2024 as:

NATIONAL PUBLIC SERVICE RECOGNITION WEEK

in the City of Northglenn and encourage all residents to join me in honoring and recognizing the dedication, professionalism, and sacrifice of our public servants at all levels of government.

DATED, at Northglenn, Colorado, this 22nd day of April 2024.

MEREDITH LEIGHTY
Mayor
