

PROCLAMATION

- WHEREAS, Malley Drive Elementary School first opened its doors to students in the fall of 1965, and is celebrating its 50th year of education and contribution to the community; and
- WHEREAS, Malley Drive Elementary School has continuously operated since that time, providing an educational home to thousands of students over the years; and
- WHEREAS, the School has twice renovated its facilities to provide additional classrooms to offer educational opportunities to every child in the community, and continues to nurture students and motivate each child to strive for success; and
- WHEREAS, the teachers and staff of Malley Drive Elementary School are committed to increasing the emotional well-being and the academic achievement of all students, while viewing diversity as a valuable opportunity and strength that enriches and broadens the educational experiences of all students; and
- WHEREAS, Malley Drive Elementary School is an important partner in the community, participating in civic activities, engaging the public, and working to gain the support of this community; and
- WHEREAS, special activities have been planned to celebrate this milestone on April 25, 2015, and it is fitting that the City of Northglenn joins in the celebration and honors Malley Drive Elementary School for its service to our students and the entire community.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Joyce Downing, Mayor of the City of Northglenn, Colorado, hereby proclaim April 25, 2015 as:

MALLEY DRIVE ELEMENTARY SCHOOL DAY

in the City of Northglenn in honor of the 50th Anniversary of Malley Drive Elementary School, and congratulate the School's administrators, teachers, staff, and families, past and present, for 50 successful years.

Dated, at Northglenn, Colorado this 13th day of April 2015.

JOYCE DOWNING
Mayor
