SUBJECT: Good Neighbor Award – July 2025

---

PURPOSE

To honor the residents nominated for the Good Neighbor Award.

BACKGROUND

The Good Neighbor Award is presented by City Council to individuals, families, or other groups who perform actions that better the community. Nominations are made by current or former Northglenn residents. Residents of any age are eligible. Though the award is intended for residents, if a nominee resides elsewhere yet has a regular “neighborly” impact in Northglenn, they may be eligible. Nominations are accepted year-round with recognition taking place three times per year. In addition to the recognition at a City Council meeting, honorees receive a mini yard sign, Northglenn logo items, and a gift card to a local restaurant. Details and the nomination form are at www.northglenn.org/goodneighbor.

The July 2025 Good Neighbor Award honorees are:

- Steve Burns
- Jim and Denise Clark
- Brian and Noel Manzanares
- Joshua and Nicole Peters
- Melinda and Francisco Romero

BUDGET/TIME IMPLICATIONS

Funds for the program are included in the 2025 Budget. The final Good Neighbor Award recognition for 2025 will be on Oct. 13 with nominations due by Sept. 29.
