

PROCLAMATION

- WHEREAS, National Volunteer Week is an annual celebration that recognizes the invaluable contributions of volunteers and the positive impact they make in communities across the nation; and
- WHEREAS, volunteers strengthen the fabric of our community by giving their time, talents, and compassion to support neighbors, enhance quality of life, and advance causes that benefit residents; and
- WHEREAS, the City of Northglenn is enriched by the dedication of individuals who serve on boards and commissions, empowering residents to engage in civic life and community service, provide a voice in local government, and help shape policies and programs that influence the quality of life in our community; and
- WHEREAS, Northglenn volunteers give their time through community events, recreation programs, senior services, and partnerships with local nonprofits and foundations, demonstrating a shared commitment to service, creativity, and civic pride; and
- WHEREAS, volunteerism promotes civic engagement, fosters a spirit of unity, and inspires others to take an active role in building a more connected and resilient community; and
- WHEREAS, National Volunteer Week provides an opportunity to express deep gratitude for our volunteers and to encourage continued service throughout our community.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Meredith Leighty, Mayor of the City of Northglenn, Colorado, do hereby proclaim the week of April 19th through 25th, 2026 as:

NATIONAL VOLUNTEER WEEK

in the City of Northglenn, and I encourage all residents to recognize and honor the contributions of volunteers and to discover additional ways to give back through service in our community.

DATED, at Northglenn, Colorado, this 13th day of April 2026.

MEREDITH LEIGHTY
Mayor
