

PROCLAMATION

- WHEREAS, October is Domestic Violence Awareness Month, a time to recognize the experiences of survivors, remember those whose lives have been lost, and renew our commitment to preventing abuse; and
- WHEREAS, domestic violence can include physical, sexual, emotional, and financial abuse, as well as threats and coercive control, and its effects can extend to children, families, and the wider community; and
- WHEREAS, every person deserves to feel safe in their home and relationships, and survivors deserve to be heard, believed, and supported as they make decisions about their safety and well-being; and
- WHEREAS, access to confidential advocacy, safe housing, legal assistance, health care, and other resources can help survivors find safety and begin to heal; and
- WHEREAS, the City of Northglenn recognizes the dedication of advocates, service providers, first responders, educators, and community members who support survivors, promote healthy relationships, and work to prevent domestic violence.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Meredith Leighty, Mayor of the City of Northglenn, Colorado, do hereby proclaim October 2026 as in the City of Northglenn and encourage all residents to learn the signs of abuse, respond to survivors with compassion, share available resources, and help build a community where everyone can live free from violence and fear.

DATED, at Northglenn, Colorado, this 28th day of September 2026.

MEREDITH LEIGHTY
Mayor
