

PROCLAMATION

- WHEREAS, National Arts & Humanities Month celebrates the creativity, history, stories, and cultural traditions that help us understand one another and strengthen our communities; and
- WHEREAS, the City of Northglenn, through Northglenn Arts and its partnership with the Northglenn Arts & Humanities Foundation, supports affordable opportunities to experience the arts, including performances at the Parsons Theatre and concerts in City parks; and
- WHEREAS, Northglenn Youth Theatre and its educational programs give young people opportunities to develop their talents, collaborate with others, and share their creativity with the community; and
- WHEREAS, public art programs, including Art on Parade, bring sculpture and other works into shared spaces, inviting residents and visitors to experience art as part of everyday life; and
- WHEREAS, Northglenn's commitment to a diverse and engaged community recognizes the value of different backgrounds, cultures, and perspectives, and the arts and humanities offer meaningful ways to celebrate those perspectives and build connections.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Meredith Leighty, Mayor of the City of Northglenn, Colorado, do hereby proclaim October 2026 as in the City of Northglenn and encourage residents to enjoy local performances and public art, explore the stories and traditions of their neighbors, and support the artists and cultural organizations that enrich our community.

NATIONAL ARTS AND HUMANITIES MONTH

DATED, at Northglenn, Colorado, this 12th day of October 2026.

MEREDITH LEIGHTY
Mayor

