

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the City of Northglenn celebrates its 50th Anniversary in 2019; and

WHEREAS, the City is celebrating residents whose contributions have positively affected the City and the lives of others; and

WHEREAS, Christine Crabtree is an active member of the community who assists others by providing rides to church, shopping for those in need, and visiting with her neighbors; and

WHEREAS, Chris is described as a “flurry of activity” and always being there to do whatever needs doing; and

WHEREAS, Chris serves the community through her work at the Immaculate Heart of Mary Food Bank and also assists individuals at the Senior Support Services center; and

WHEREAS, Chris was involved with Special Olympics and continues to support activities within the disabled community; and

WHEREAS, Chris’ volunteerism extends outside of Northglenn. In June, she drove a U-Haul filled with items she collected from the community to the border near El Paso, Texas to provide assistance to individuals in need; and

WHEREAS, Chris has gone above and beyond to make a difference and help others; and

WHEREAS, Chris has positively impacted the lives and living conditions of individuals and the community at large.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Antonio B. Esquibel, Mayor of the City of Northglenn, Colorado, hereby congratulate Christine Crabtree for being honored by fellow residents, City Council and myself for her contributions to the City of Northglenn.

Dated, at Northglenn, Colorado, this 9th day of September 2019.
