

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the City of Northglenn celebrates its 50th Anniversary in 2019; and

WHEREAS, the City is celebrating residents whose contributions have positively affected the City and the lives of others; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Gerald Dagenais was an amazing volunteer for the City of Northglenn; and

WHEREAS, Gerald is described as having been gentle, kind, giving, and committed to others and his community; and

WHEREAS, Gerald walked the streets of Northglenn for hours a day, four to five days a week, to pick up trash and meet local business owners; and

WHEREAS, Gerald participated in the Farmers Highline Canal cleanups year after year; and

WHEREAS, Gerald “adopted” families from a local school to help provide them supplies and resources they needed, and volunteered numerous hours at Malley Drive Elementary School to help wherever he could; and

WHEREAS, Gerald even gave of himself in death, donating his body to science; and

WHEREAS, Gerald went above and beyond to make a difference and inspire others; and

WHEREAS, Gerald positively impacted the lives and living conditions of individuals and the community at large.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Antonio B. Esquibel, Mayor of the City of Northglenn, Colorado, hereby recognize Gerald Dagenais for being honored by fellow residents, City Council and myself for his contributions to the City of Northglenn, and extend our gratitude to his family, accepting this proclamation in his honor, for sharing their loved one with the City of Northglenn for so many years.

Dated, at Northglenn, Colorado, this 26th day of August 2019.
