Questionnaire

Have you lived in the City of Northglenn for at least 12 months?	Yes
Are you a registered voter?	Yes
Are you aware of the time commitment for serving on Council and will your schedule permit your regular attendance at meetings?	Yes
Are you related to any employee, appointee, or elected official of the City?	No
List your skills, abilities, related volunteer community service and interests relevant to the City Council position.	Served as chair of CCPP. Majoring in political science.
Why do you want to be appointed to City Council?	Mainly want to serve as an alternative/blocker to Mark Bromley filling the vacancy.
How will your education, training, experience, and knowledge of the community make you a suitable candidate to serve as a member of the City Council?	My main focus is service to my community. I feel my experience throughout my life has prepared me for this type of service. Through my compassion and optimism, I can use my voice for those underserved.

In your opinion, what are the most important issues facing the City and how would you propose they be addressed?

I believe in Northglenn's mission of diversity and I'd like to continue that goal going forward. I want our community to be on the forefront of modern ideas and approaches while staying inclusive for everyone.

What vision do you have for the City of Northglenn?

I'd like to see a real effort put into recruitment for various things such as new businesses, tourism, and investments into renewable energy.

In reviewing the City's 2022 Budget, what are you most excited about and why?

Enhancements to our police department.

If the Council is debating an item that is, for you, a particularly strong emotional issue, how would you maintain your objectivity?

I consider myself to be extremely open minded if for no other reason than to better be able to craft my argument based on what my opponent is saying.
